

HURST CASTLE SAILING CLUB COOKIE POLICY

WHAT ARE COOKIES?

When we provide services, we want to make them easy, useful and reliable. Where services are delivered on the internet, this sometimes involves placing small amounts of information on your device, for example, your computer or mobile phone. These include small files known as cookies. They cannot be used to identify you personally.

Cookies are used to improve services for you through, for example:

- recognising that you may already have given a username and password so you don't need to do it for every web page requested
- measuring how many people are using services, so they can be made easier to use and there's enough capacity to ensure they are fast
- analysing anonymised data to help us understand how people interact with govt services so we can make them better

HOW TO MANAGE COOKIES

- You can manage these small files and learn more about them from the article,
 - Internet Browser cookies- what they are and how to manage them. \(www.gov.uk/help/cookies\)
- Learn how to remove cookies set on your device \(www.aboutcookies.org\)

There are two types of cookie you may encounter when using our website:

- First party cookies: these are our own cookies, controlled by us and used to provide information about usage of our site.
- Third party cookies: these are cookies found in other companies' internet tools which we are using to enhance our site, for example Facebook or Twitter have their own cookies, which are controlled by them.
